Congratulations!

Morioka Chuo High School:

We are glad to learn that your student Ryoyu KOBAYASHI won the Men's Normal Hill Individual final with 275 points at the 2022 Beijing Winter Olympic Games, and won the first gold medal for the Japanese team. Ryoyu KOBAYASHI's brother, who is also a student of your school, also achieved excellent results in this winter Olympic games. The excellent skills and performance of your students have created the most wonderful moment for the special competition of the Olympic Games. As a friendly school, we feel the same pride. We would like to extend my warmest congratulations to Ryoyu KOBAYASHI and his family, coaches and teachers, and all teachers and students of Morioka Chuo High School!

The outstanding students of your school have carried forward the spirit of the Olympic Games, which is not afraid of difficulties, sincere cooperation and indomitable struggle. It has overcome the interference and challenges brought by COVID-19 to all people. With a firm will and superb skills, it has demonstrated to the world the vigorous vigor and brilliant brilliance of the students of Morioka Chuo High School. We look forward to your school carrying forward the glorious tradition, making persistent efforts, forging ahead and creating new brilliance!

We wish the friendship between our two schools a long history and eternal youth!
